PROF. and Mrs. Percy L. Horne, of the Kamehameha schools, who are leaving in July for the east where they will make their permanent home, were the complimented guests on Tuesday afternoon at a large reception given by the Hawaiian Society, Sons of the American Revolution, of which Prof. Horne is the regent, and Aloha Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of which Mrs. Horne is the head. The affair took place between the hours of 4 and 6 at the home of Prof. and Mrs. William Alanson Bryan on Punahou street and was attended by several hundred guests.

Prof. and Mrs. Bryan received the guests upon the palm-screened lanai whence they were presented to the receiving line, Mrs. Letson, Miss Agnes Judd, Miss Charlotte Hall, Mrs. William W. Forbes and Mrs. Herman Hugo making the presentations. In the receiving line, which was stationed in one corner of the living room, were the two guests of compliment, Prof. and Mrs. Horne; Mrs. J. B. Atherton, vice regent of Aloha Chapter, Mr. William R. Castle, vice president of the S. A. R., together with the two past regents of Aloha Chapter, Mrs. W. W. Hall and Mrs. A. H. B. Judd.

Mrs. Bryan wore an attractive summer frock of white shadow lace and maize-colored satin and a white garden hat wreathed with long white plumes. Mrs. Horne wore a modish afternoon gown of pearl gray with touches of white about the throat, and wore a corsage cluster of violets and Cecil Bruner roses.

Ernest Kaul's quintet of singing boys were stationed on the lanai and the sweet tones of ukuleles and guitars formed a soft background of music for the hum of conversation. Plaintive old Hawaiian songs were interpreted with national airs. At 5 o'clock Mr. Haku Young Lu, a young Chinese student of Mills' institute, who was the winner this year of the cup awarded in the annual declamation contest at the school, delivered Webster's famous Bunker Hill oration with fine feeling and excellent enunciation.

The decorations of the house were simple, but most effective, and appropriate to the occasion. The blue and white of the D. A. R. were combined with the yellow and blue of the S. A. R., the color scheme being worked out in golden conceals and white Shasta daisies, long stemmed blue lilies and leils and streamers of blue.

Large American and Hawaiian flags were also effectively used about the house and grounds, and in commemoration of a century of peace the American and British flags were folded together and hung across the front of the house. The flag flying from the staff on the lawn bore the thirteen stars of the original Betsy Ross flag of historical fame.

The handsome hand-wrought silk flag which formed the motif for the chief decoration of the living room was a gift to Mrs. Bryan from the Buffalo Chapter, D. A. R., which is the largest chapter in the national organization, the gift having been presented on the occasion of her marriage with Prof. Bryan five years ago.

In the charm of the tropical setting afforded by clustering coconut trees, heavy with their burden of golden-brown nuts; broad-leaved bread fruit trees, alligator pear and others peculiar to this locality, the punch table was placed, and the guests repaired to the lawn to partake of light refreshments. Mrs. Charles H. Atherton and Mrs. W. W. Forbes presided over the punch bowl, and were assisted in serving cakes and confections by a bevy of young girls.

Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani had expected to be present, but owing to indisposition was obliged at the last moment to send her regrets, which were shared by all present, as the gracious woman, who formerly sat upon Hawaii's throne, is beloved by all nationalities who call Hawaii home, and she is as surely now enthroned in their hearts in that realm of love and sincere friendship as ever she was upon the more material throne of the old monarchy.

Three hundred invitations were issued for the affair and included the names of many prominent in the professional, civic and social circles of the city.

Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, Governor L. E. Pinkham, Prince and Princess Kaiulani, Hon. and Mrs. George R. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Dominis, Hon. and Mrs. Sanford B. Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham Entertain. On last Wednesday evening, which was the date of their twelfth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Dillingham entertained a number of their friends very informally. The affair was given in honor of the two sisters of Mr. Dillingham, the Misses Elizabeth and Cora Dillingham of Massachusetts who are spending the summer here. A number of later evening progressive games were participated in by all and a most pleasant evening was enjoyed. Those present were Miss Elizabeth Dillingham, Miss Cora Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gignoux, Mr. and Mrs. Mathew M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mr. and Mrs. John Erdman, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McIntyre, Prof. and Mrs. Arthur Keller, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. B. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and little son are leaving on the 13th of June for China where they will visit Mrs. Barnes' mother for several months.

Miss Halstead's Party. Miss Bernice Halstead entertained a number of her friends last Saturday afternoon at a most enjoyable five hundred party in honor of Miss Kathryn Blake. After a delightful afternoon at the cards, the first prize was awarded to Miss Alice Hoogs; Miss Margaret Center captured the second, while the consolation prize went to the guest of honor. Those present were: Misses Kathryn Blake, Dorothy Peterson, Janett Sharp, Grace Brechtel, Ramona Morgan, Alice Hoogs, Ruth Anderson, Ruth Soper, Dorothy Guild, Thelma Murphy, Florence Ballou, Daphne Damon, Pauline Schaefer, Margaret Center, Helen McLean, May Marshall, Maud Ballentyne, Carol Reed, Avis, Gates and Miss Halstead.

Mrs. McStocker's Tea. Mrs. F. B. McStocker was hostess at a delightfully informal tea on Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were very prettily decorated with yellow cannaas, beautiful golden lilies and a profusion of hanging baskets filled with lovely feathery ferns. After a pleasant chat, delicious tea was served. Those present were: Mrs. William R. Davis, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Norris Stuyton, Mrs. H. T. Wichman, Mrs. Albert Horner, Mrs. A. Hocking, Mrs. Z. K. Myers, Mrs. Hagens, Mrs. Cutler, Mrs. Lackland, Miss Peck, Mrs. J. S. Johnston, Mrs. L. A. Thurston, Mrs. Arnett P. Matthews, Mrs. O. E. Wall, Mrs. F. Pearson and Mrs. McStocker.

Col. and Mrs. Ellis' Dinner. Col. and Mrs. W. E. Ellis entertained a number of friends at a delightful dinner party on Thursday evening at their home at Fort Ruger. The table was radiant with clusters of the flowers of the poinciana regia tree. The room was also filled with these bright and beautiful blossoms. Covers were laid for Capt. and Mrs. George H. Jamerson, Capt. and Mrs. J. S. Johnston, Capt. and Mrs. C. A. Clark, Lieut. and Mrs. F. D. Apple, Lieut. and Mrs. H. F. Nichols, Col. and Mrs. Ellis.

Gen. and Mrs. Carter's Dinner. General and Mrs. William H. Carter entertained at a delightful dinner last Tuesday evening. The table was attractively decorated with big yellow chrysanthemums and sprays of maidenhair fern. Covers were placed for Col. and Mrs. Daniel L. Howell, Col. and Mrs. Frederick P. Reynolds, Capt. and Mrs. George H. Jamerson, Major and Mrs. Arthur S. Conklin, Major M. A. Delaney, Mrs. Tower, and General and Mrs. Carter.

Mrs. Thayer's Luncheon. Mrs. Arthur F. Thayer was hostess at a very attractive luncheon on Wednesday afternoon. The table was very prettily decorated with masses of golden shower while great clusters of the same were artistically arranged.

about the rooms. The general color scheme was carried out in the place cards which were done in yellow. Covers were placed for Mrs. Frank Apple, Mrs. Charles Crane, Mrs. Samuel Peck, Mrs. J. M. Stainback, Mrs. W. W. Thayer, Mrs. R. R. Hall, Miss Mabel Hair and Mrs. Thayer.

A Fated Bride. Mrs. William P. Roth, who until last Wednesday was Miss Lurline Matson, was most extensively entertained during the two weeks previous to her wedding and the days have been one long merry whirl of excitement for the entire bridal party. The following is a brief notice of a few of the many affairs given in their honor:

Miss Lurline Matson is being feted with no end of affairs, she having generously had her friends defer their affairs for her until after the arrival of Mr. William Roth, to whom she is to be married later in the month. On Friday evening Miss Jane Hotelling gave a dinner dance for the Matson-Roth bridal party and a few of their intimate friends. Tomorrow evening Miss Melba McMahon entertains the same circle at a similar affair, and on Tuesday Miss Frances Pierce will have the same group as her guests at a theater-party, with supper afterwards. Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Bentley have asked their friends to a dancing party at their home in Mompoti-ment to Miss Matson and Mr. Roth.

Mrs. Matthews' Dinner. Mrs. Arnett P. Matthews was hostess at a most enjoyable little dinner on Thursday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown, who leave shortly for their home in the East. The table was daintily decorated with yellow coreopsis and asparagus ferns. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown, Capt. and Mrs. Norris Stuyton, and Dr. and Mrs. Matthews.

Tantalus Picnic. A very jolly picnic was enjoyed on Tantalus last Sunday by a number of ambitious "hikers." The merry party made an early start, attacking the steep trail. Lunch was enjoyed after the climb at the Thurston home, where the party rested. After some time spent in drinking in the magnificent view and noting the lovely surroundings, they started for home. Those who made up the party were: Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Johnston, Capt. and Mrs. Carr W. Waller, Lieut. and Mrs. H. F. Nichols, Lieut. and Mrs. F. D. Apple, Capt. and Mrs. F. N. Hinkle, Capt. and Mrs. C. A. Clark, Miss Julie McStocker, and Dr. and Mrs. Arnett P. Matthews.

Miss McCracken to Depart. Miss Glenna McCracken, whose engagement to Mr. Geoffrey Podmore has been just recently announced, is leaving on the 3rd of June for the coast, to be gone a year. Her plans are not definitely made yet, but it is probable that she will visit awhile in California, both in San Francisco and in the southern part of the state, and she may attend the summer school at the University of California.

Miss McCracken is president of the Moani Music Club, and has made a very prominent place for herself in Honolulu musical circles. Her scores of friends here will feel her loss keenly and regret exceedingly to see her depart.

Mr. and Mrs. McCracken will accompany their daughter to the coast with the intention of locating in Long Beach.

Melbourne-Bolles Wedding. A very quiet wedding took place on Thursday evening at 8:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Wright, when Miss Lillian Bolles became the wife of Mr. Franklin G. Melbourne. The lovely double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. H. Parker in the presence of the immediate relatives of the couple.

The bride looked very pretty in a soft white crepe gown over white silk, trimmed with beautiful point lace made by her mother. She carried a large bouquet of exquisite Cecil Bruner roses, the gift of Mrs. Ethel M. Taylor. She was attended by the Misses Julietts and Catherine Wright, who wore simple white finger dresses and carried dainty baskets filled with white flowers and maidenhair fern.

The room was beautifully decorated in green and white, a profusion of asters and Easter lilies being used. One corner of the room, where the bride and groom stood, was prettily banked with bamboo, while above their heads hung a lovely hanging basket filled with fluffy maidenhair ferns and tied with a large bow of white tulle.

The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith for the entrance of the bride, who was given away by Mr. W. O. Smith.

After the ceremony, the bride cut the wedding cake and simple refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. van Valkenburg, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Singlehurst and Hon. and Mrs. W. O. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne are leaving on the Matsushita on the 3rd of June for San Francisco, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Mrs. Lowrey's Reception. Mrs. F. J. Lowrey was hostess at a most delightful luncheon on Monday afternoon. The table was beautifully decorated with fragrant violets and a variety of the lovely "Niniko" flowers. This was the first of a series of luncheons extending through the summer which Mrs. Lowrey plans to give to the workers in the Outdoor Circle. All present were enthusiastic over what has been accomplished during the past year, and the afternoon was spent in eagerly discussing plans for fall work. Luncheon covers were placed for Miss Frances Lawrence, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Mrs. George Sheppard, Mrs. A. E. Murphy, Miss Bertha Young, Mrs. C. C. van Ham, Mrs. J. Walter Jones, C. G. Fred Bush, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mrs. Z. K.

Clark, Mrs. John McTaggart, Miss Grace Cooke, Mrs. Lawrence and Miss Mary Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Donaghoo's Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Donaghoo entertained at a most delightful dinner last evening at Mrs. Gray's in honor of the Senior Class of the College of Hawaii. The table was artistically decorated with masses of yellow coreopsis. The yellow color scheme was also carried out in the pretty hand-painted place cards. Covers were placed for Miss Miriam Olin, Mr. William Barnhart, Mr. Lemke, Miss Bernice Smith, Miss Dorothy Raab, Mr. Leslie Hicks, Mrs. Irene Alken, Mr. Harold Starratt, Mr. and Mrs. Donaghoo. After dinner the guests enjoyed a chat on the lovely moonlit lawn.

Coming Wedding. On next Wednesday afternoon, May 31, at 4 o'clock, Miss Dorothy Hester will become the bride of Dr. H. H. Hedemann. The wedding will take place at the residence of the bride-to-be and will be very simple. Miss Bernice Hartwell will be of honor for her sister, and Mr. Edmund Hedemann will act as best man for Dr. Hedemann.
